

relating to his investments or other financial interests referred to in §1100.26, upon making of a determination that this information is not relevant in light of the duties the appointee is to perform.

§ 1100.28 Supplementary statement.

Changes in or additions to the information contained in an employee's statement of employment and financial interests shall be reported as of June 30 of each year. Even though no changes or additions occur, a negative report is required. The supplementary statement, negative or otherwise, will be submitted by July 31 of each year. Notwithstanding the filing of the annual report, Section personnel shall at all times avoid acquiring a financial interest that could result, or taking action that would result, in a violation of the conflict-of-interest provisions of 18 U.S.C. 208 or this order.

§ 1100.29 Interests of employee's relatives.

The interests of a spouse, minor child, or other member of an employee's immediate household is considered to be an interest of the employee. For the purpose of this order, 'member of an employee's immediate household' means those blood relatives who are residents of the employee's household.

§ 1100.30 Information not required to be submitted.

An employee is not required to submit on a statement of employment and financial interests or supplementary statement any information relating to the employee's connection with, or interests in, a professional society or a charitable, religious, social, fraternal, recreational, public service, civic or political organization or a similar organization not conducted as a business enterprise. For the purpose of this order, educational and other institutions doing research and development or related work involving grants of money from or contracts with the Government are deemed 'business enterprises' and are required to be included in an employee's statement of employment and financial interests.

§ 1100.31 Information not known to employees.

If any information required to be included on a statement of employment and financial interests or supplementary statement, including holdings placed in trust, is not known to the employee but known to another person, the employee shall request that other person to submit the information on his behalf.

§ 1100.32 Confidentiality of employee's statements.

Each statement of employment and financial interests, and each supplementary statement, will be held in confidence. The Section may not disclose information from a statement except as the Commissioner or the Civil Service Commission may determine for good cause. Persons designated to review the statements are responsible for maintaining the statements in confidence and shall not allow access to, or allow information to be disclosed from the statement except to carry out the purpose of this order, or Federal laws or regulations.

§ 1100.33 Effect of employee's statements on other requirements.

The statements of employment and financial interests and supplementary statements required of employees are in addition to, and not in substitution for, or in derogation of, any similar requirement imposed by law, order, or regulation. The submission of a statement or supplementary statement by an employee does not permit him or any other person to participate in a matter in which his or the other person's participation is prohibited by law, order, or regulation.
